

It is hard to believe that a whole half term has passed... If that isn't too confusing a term! So much learning has been done and the children have made an outstanding start to the year. I know they have put their all in as we expect them to each and every day. The progress that is evident in the learning and personal development is something worthy of celebration and I do hope that over the holiday period you are able to find the opportunity to rest and enjoy some downtime.

At the end of this week, we are saying goodbye to a couple of members of staff. Mr Merchant has been here at the Royal for six years and is moving onto a new post, based at the University of Wolverhampton. We are grateful for all that he has done over the years at our school and wish him every success in his future. Mrs Nelson has been working with us for two years mainly with the younger children and is retiring. We trust that she will enjoy a fulfilled retirement and be able to do many of the things that maybe she has been unable to do during her working life. The number of staff members have joined us and I'm sure those of you who have met those staff in your children's classes will welcome them to the school community. The new staff are:

Mrs Bucknall, Mrs Fahim, Ms Florence, Mrs Mathusuthan, Ms Jones - Teaching Assistants, Ms Patel & Ms Billen – After School Assistants.

I look forward to seeing you all again following the holiday and to all parents celebrating Diwali have a wonderful day.

HAPPY
Diwali
