The Royal Primary Newsletter

As we come to the end of a fantastic half term, we are lucky to have a host of wonderful experiences to look back on – as well as a few days of lovely weather to remind us that summer is coming! This week Year 2 held their first ever Royal School Sleepover – a fantastic event which all the children enjoyed...and some sleep was also had! We had wonderful weather and were lucky to be joined by some of our boarding students who arranged games for the pupils, before a film and sleep in the theatre. Many thanks to all the Year 2 staff who gave up their time to make this happen.

Year 6 had a longer trip away, travelling to Dunfield House in Herefordshire for a fun filled week in the countryside. In order to reduce costs for parents, staff organised and managed all elements of the trip, including all activities. Our thanks to all staff who contributed both at school and on the trip for organising such a wonderful experience. Particular thanks go to Mrs Holdsworth, Ms Paikkou and Miss Sims. Some pictures of the fabulous experiences our children have had are shared below.

As we look ahead to the next half term, we begin to think about celebrating successes and looking to the future. Today, we are raising funds for the charity Aspiring Futures, who have been supporting parents of the Royal School in learning English. We look forward to continuing to work with them as they help our families build the best version of their futures possible. We will also be sending out information about Sports Days and Prize Day, two highlights of the school calendar! Look out for more information below.

Finally, I would like to wish you all a very happy and restful half term with your families, and look forward to another exciting half term to come.

ASSEMBLY

In this week's assembly, we were delighted to recognise and reward our pupils for their outstanding achievements.

Pupils were presented with bronze and silver awards for reaching 50 and 75 house points. It was also a special moment as we awarded our first gold of the academic year to a commendable pupil in Year 4 who has reached 100 house points.

Additionally, recognising the importance of positive behaviour, pupils were presented with awards for being playground buddies and showing courtesy. These accolades highlight their continuous embodiment of our school's values and learning behaviours. Congratulations to all the deserving recipients of these awards. Well done!

Year 1 Enjoys an Exciting Music Workshop with Wolverhampton Music Service

Today was a special day for our Year 1 pupils, who were treated to an exhilarating music workshop courtesy of the Wolverhampton Music Service. The visitors brought a lively and engaging performance, presenting an array of songs that captivated the young audience.

The children were mesmerized by the talent and enthusiasm of the performers. From the moment the first note was played, the room was filled with joy and excitement. The variety of songs performed kept the pupils entertained and actively involved, with many joining in clapping, singing along, and even dancing to the rhythms.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Wolverhampton Music Service for their visit and for providing such a memorable and educational experience for our Year 1 pupils. Their performance has undoubtedly sparked a greater appreciation for music among the children and has added a wonderful harmony to their day.

Music Service is visiting over 50 schools this week and they are encouraging schools to get engaged with their hashtag #LiveMusicWton

We are excited to extend an invitation to you for an upcoming IT workshop hosted by Patrick Flynn from Online Behaviours Ltd.

Following the overwhelmingly positive feedback we received from parents after the last workshop, we felt it was important to invite Patrick back to further delve into this critical topic. Parents who attended the previous workshop shared that they found it to be sobering and enlightening regarding the challenges surrounding safeguarding in the digital age.

“A huge thank you for this powerful workshop on online safety, that made all parents attending aware of the dangers of the online world. I would highly recommend this workshop to all parents / carers and the children too.”

Parent feedback.

The workshop is scheduled for Wednesday 10th July at 2:00pm in the Primary Hall. This session promises to be both informative and engaging, covering important topics related to online behaviours and digital literacy.

No need to book, just pop along.

We believe that enhancing our understanding of technology and its impact is crucial in today's digital age, especially when it comes to guiding and safeguarding our children online. Patrick Flynn brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise in this field, and we are confident that attendees will benefit greatly from his insights.

Our KS2 pupils recently spent a delightful afternoon in the primary playground, engaging in creative activities that brought joy to everyone involved. The children immersed themselves in making friendship bracelets and creating vibrant chalk art, transforming the playground into a colorful tapestry of their collective creativity.
